What Others Are Saying

“With the rapid expansion of gambling ... the need for education and training of treatment, prevention and research professionals has never been greater. University programs providing training opportunities for professionals working in the field of gambling studies should be commended for this important work.”

Jeffrey L. Derevensky, Ph.D.,

Professor and director of Clinical Training, Department of Psychiatry at Quebec’s McGill University

New Updates

- The new DSM-5, as it relates to disordered gambling, is integrated into the course content and quizzes.
- Visit ‘My Home’ for downloadable transcripts of the audio lectures to review course lectures.

Program Continuing Education Approvals

The program is approved by an array of certification bodies including the American Psychological Association, NASW, American Academy, and the National Council on Problem Gambling.

Audio

The certificate is audio-based and requires computer sound. Downloadable transcripts of the audio lectures are available for reviewing course lectures.
